

THE CLASSICS ACT BY THE NUMBERS

Based on an interpretation of state and federal copyright laws, some of the biggest digital radio services in the world believe they can use music recorded before this arbitrary date in 1972 for free.

26 out of 40

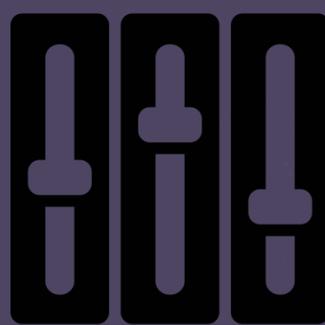

House Judiciary Committee members have signed on in support of the CLASSICS Act.

The CLASSICS Act has strong bipartisan support in the House and Senate

6 in 10 ADULTS AGREE

music licensing and copyright protection regulations should stay abreast of current trends

SUPPORTERS

Learn more about the CLASSICS Act at musicfirstcoalition.com/classicsact